Kelawea Village

Revision Notes:
1. According to Ted Miyamoto in his book, "Growing Up On A Sugar Plantation" the village name is uniquely spelled "Kelawea" instead of "Kilauea."
2. Like the residents of Kuhua Village, the residents of Kelawea were also offered by PMCO to buy their homes; therefore, the older section of this village like that of Kuhua retains the configuration on the 1940's minus the community toilets and baths.

Information on the layout of this village and the names of the households were provided by Gladys (Ueno) Watanabe, et.al. Their help is gratefully acknowledged.
